Inspire an Experience™

Fads come and go, but trends make a lasting impact! The following pages guide you through the latest style motifs and color concepts to inspire you as you craft that next memorable experience.

Simplistic forms and iconic silhouettes:

...the hallmarks of Mid-Century Modern designs.

Quality craftsmanship and warm, earthy hues combined with natural textures - like wood! - are rich and enduring. The tie-in of organic elements, like greenery and soft fabrics with tufting or stitching, provide interest and drama. Form and function come together for a familiar, yet updated take on the Danish Modern style.

Warm and Inviting

Velvet fabrics in warm colorful tones, create a comfortable vibe that encourages your guests to linger and engage.

A Return to the Classics.

Elegant shapes, romantic and curvy Art Deco and Retro Modern designs are teleporting us into the glamour of the early 1900s.

Velvet, faux fur and feminine textures and patterns take center stage. Juxtapose these attributes with natural masculine elements, such as marbles and metallics, for a dramatic yet sophisticated design. Jaws are bound to drop, and memories are bound to be made in this luxurious setting.

Gold and Green

Striking bronze and gold hues are anchored by soft, curved shapes and calming greens. Incorporate romanticism and attract attention!

Colors of 2021: Ultimate Gray and Illuminating

Rock-solid foundation married with a warm optimism - no other pair can better lead us through this year. Let this combination guide you in creating bright, cheerful designs anchored by practical sensibility.

From vibrant hues reminiscent of sunshine, lemons or sunflowers to more golden shades of harvest and ochre, yellow conveys a sense of energetic clarity. Gray is dependable and everlasting, the color of pebbles on a beach and weathered stone or wood that stands the test of time. The yin-yang of these two shades reflect the moment, where cautious optimism and resilience leads us to the promise of a brighter future.

Let this perfect combination be both your design inspiration and guiding mantra for 2021.

Classic and Cool:

An homage to the retro Mid-Century style, the Sterling Collection features angled faux-wood legs perfect for modern environments.

Get Inspired by: Berry Tones

Clients open to taking chances should go bold with the berry colors of cranberry, plum, grape, and strawberry. Pink grapefruit, lavender and fuchsia complement the vibrant hues.

Metal, metallic and marble surfaces anchor the design, but don't forget to soften with textures like white sheer drape, shag rugs, and greenery.

Make your event berry-licious and make a bold statement.

Bold and Beautiful

Merging Mid-Century and Art Deco design with a modern urban feel, the berry-colored Chandler Collection is a vibrant take on iconic style.

chandler collection | pg. 58

Get Inspired by: Natural Greens

From rich tropical hues to shimmering emeralds, use green as the dominant shade at your next event for a harmonious and restorative palette. Incorporate calming moss, savory chive, herbal sage, and cool mint.

Mix shades of green together for a refreshing design and coordinate with earthy browns and black marble. Convey a sense of vitality and health to your guests with gorgeous luxe greens!

Velvet and Vitality

Shimmering emerald velvet and soft curves with channel stitching detail, creates uniquely sophisticated seating.

Get Inspired by: Classic Blues

Want to infuse color into your design, but have a traditional client? 2020's Color of the Year, blue is the best way to move in a trendy direction without going too far.

From light sky, navy and midnight to denim, cobalt, teal and periwinkle, this palette is both reassuring and recognizable. Considered a new neutral, these hues can be paired with natural woods or organic earth tones, black, gray or white.

The sky really is the limit when it comes to getting the blues!

Sea and Sky

Energize your event or corporate meeting with this tufted white sofa and colorful blue chair to create spaces where attendees want to linger.
